Sanketham Application- FAQs

1. Is it possible to apply for a new building permit in an already building existing plot, through Sanketham application?

Ans: Yes, Already existing building is shown as a construction type with existing building not for permit and the new building is shown as another construction with New Construction option.

2. Is it possible to apply for permit in a plot, having more than one construction, through Sanketham?

Ans:-   Yes,it is possible through option new construction and entering number of constructions as first construction,second construction according to the number of buildings to be constructed in the plot.

3. Is it possible to add and regularize a building through a single application?

Ans:-   Yes, it can be done through Addition/Extension option as one construction type and regularization can be done through second construction through new construction option.

4. In case of new permit application,is it possible to submit application for constructing well and compound wall in the same application?

Ans:-   Yes, this can be done by selecting new construction,digging of well,compound wall and entering details in the same construction type.

5. Is it necessary to submit Appendix-A in hand written format along with submitting application online through Sanketham?

Ans:-   No,There is no need for submitting Appendix-A in hand written format,because after filling all details of Appendix –A through Sanketham we can take print out of this from Report menu and can submit this.

6. Why is it that even after entering all fields we can't submit application to local body through Sanketham?

Ans:-   Check whether any field in check list portion is showing Not Permissible. If so correct the value in the field to the required value then save the record and submit.

7. Why is it that even after entering all fields permit fee is showing as 0?

Ans:-   Check whether Area of Permit field is filled with correct value,also check whether Govt building option is selected.If both these fields are corrected permit fee will be correct.

8. Is it possible to extend the three year period of a permit issued through Sanketham?

Ans:-   Yes, it is possible.It can be done with the request from permit owner through rectification menu of Approver login.

9. Is it possible to change Office name in case of municipalities having zonal offices?

Ans:-   Yes, with request from applicant this can be corrected through rectification menu in Clerk's login.

10.   Is it possible to change Licensee name after receiving permit issued from local body?

Ans:-   With request from permit owner Licensee name can be change from Approver login.

11.   Is it possible to change owner name in a permit?

Ans:-   With request from permit owner, owner name can be changed from Approver login.

12.   In case of multi storied buildings, is it possible to issue permit for completed portions?

Ans:-   Yes, it is possible to issue permit for completed portions within the permit validity period.